Paying through your mortgage or TIPP?

1 Your Mortgage

Your mortgage company will not be contacted. You must pay this tax bill by the due date to avoid penalties. We suggest you contact your mortgage company to ensure they are collecting sufficient funds to cover your next year's property taxes.

2 TIPP

Supplementary levies and any estimated increase in taxes will be recalculated in your TIPP payment.

For more information on the TIPP program please visit www.lethbridge.ca/tipp.

What is a supplementary tax?

A supplementary tax bill is issued when a new improvement to a property is completed or occupied during the current calendar year.

Supplementary tax is based on the increase in value, from the annual assessment (prior year end value) to the value upon completion or occupancy.

How is supplementary tax calculated?

The supplementary tax is prorated from the time of completion or occupancy to the end of the current calendar year.
