During the Debate:

Listen carefully to the other Mock Councillors as the debate unfolds. You can take short notes while you listen, so that you remember what each Mock Councillor said. This will help you respond when it's your turn to speak.

Debate Notes

During the debate, you will have the chance to speak in more depth about why Mock Council should take your position.

However, if you hear an argument that changes your mind, you may absolutely change your position! That's what debate is for!
