Rotary Park, home to the Rotary Playground, is a long linear park tucked in a residential neighbourhood. There is a paved walkway that meanders throughout the park and joins the surrounding neighbourhood in a couple of different locations. There is a playground located in the park featuring slides, climbing apparatus, and swings. There is also a limited amount of open space suitable for children's play. If you are looking for a quiet park for a few hours of fun with your little ones, or for a scenic detour on your regular run, this park is for you.
